

Family of Abraham

Towards a Common Vision

Breaking the Cycle: Faith Communities and the Transformation of Bigotry

Guest Speaker

DANIEL TUTT

Daniel Tutt is a fellow at the Institute for Social Policy and Understanding. His writing has appeared in The Washington Post, Think Progress, and Common Ground News Service. He has a Master of Arts from The American University in Ethics, Peace and Global Affairs. In his work, Daniel promotes dialogue and understanding between people of all faiths. He serves as Outreach Director of Unity Productions Foundation, where he leads communications initiatives.

RESPONSES AND REFLECTIONS

Imam Yusuf Abdullah

Masjid Al-Islam, Nashville

Volney Gay

Professor of Psychiatry and Religious Studies,
Vanderbilt University

Jackie Halstead

Managing Director of Lipscomb University's Institute for Christian Spirituality and Associate Professor of Spiritual Formation

Who We Are

The Family of Abraham is a group of Nashvillians representing the three Abrahamic faiths and other religious traditions. We advance understanding through conversations, speakers and educational forums.

Mission

Using the tools of education and engagement, The Family of Abraham champions religious freedom, fosters diversity and promotes a more inclusive community.

Please join us for our fifth evening of learning together.

Thursday, February 21, 2013 — 7 p.m.
Christ Church Cathedral, 900 Broadway, Nashville 37203

Reception to follow

Attendees will be directed to available free parking.